Sarah McCoy's story tracks the life of Elsie (the baker's daughter of the title) during World War II in Garmisch, Germany, where her family, stalwart National Socialists, runs a bakery, and in present day El Paso, Texas. In the El Paso segments, Elsie's story is subordinate to a plot line involving Reba, an American writer and Riki, a Latino border patrol agent. I guess the author's intent is that Reba learn to face life chal
